

BioInceptor

BioInceptor

BioInceptor is built on my platform of prior work experience, predominantly my eight years tenure with the biotech company Genmab and my six years with the specialty pharmaceutical company Azanta. I have worked with a number of smaller companies in the industry to facilitate inception and growth

Most of my professional experience is gained through the role of being CFO for companies, gradually evolving into a COO-type responsibility

Prior tasks

Taking companies from inception through phases of growth to the stage of IPO

Successful IPO activities, including preparation of Danish, German and US prospectuses (Rule 144a and Form F-1 registration document). A number of secondary offerings and private placements have successfully been completed

Arranged and held in numerous investor meetings and met with investment bankers in US and Europe

Conducted a broad range of strategic development including identification and negotiation of partnerships and collaborations, acquisitions, licensing agreements, loan and equity financing arrangements

Financial due diligence and closing of acquisition of companies and assets

Extensive financial forecasting, modeling and budgeting activities

Establishment of subsidiaries, building of domestic and international teams

Responsibility for Finance, IT and HR combined with extensive Investor Relations activities.

Genmab is a leading international biotechnology company focused on developing antibody therapeutics. The company is listed on Nasdaq OMX Nordic and member of the OMXC20 Index

Azanta is a privately held growth-oriented international specialty pharmaceutical group, marketing a portfolio of pharmaceutical products and medical devices. Azanta has a number of proprietary products within oncology and women's health in clinical development

Bo Kruse

I am an executing leader with equal focus on efficacious operations and strategic development. As an analytical and decisive economist, I balance the combination of stability and change in a developing company through value based and lasting relationships

Education

Extensive leadership and financial training

Master of Science in Business Economics and Auditing at Copenhagen Business School (1999)

HD in Financial & Accounting Management (Diploma) at Copenhagen Business School (1996)

Languages

Danish (mother tongue), English fluently, Swedish fluently, and some German
